EOS Hospitality, a full-service hotel management company that boasts a diverse portfolio of hotels and resorts ranging from budget-friendly to first-class luxury properties, announced on May 05, it has been selected to manage Havana Cabana at Key West and Tranquility Bay Beachfront Hotel and Resort, in the Florida Keys. Both properties are owned by DiamondRock Hospitality Company, a real estate investment trust with 33 premium hotels and resorts containing over 9,400 rooms concentrated in key gateway cities and destination resorts throughout the United States.

"It is a privilege to partner with DiamondRock and build on our history of success in the Florida Keys market," said Mark Keiser, Chief Development Officer of EOS Hospitality. "These properties represent both the idyllic and the eclectic nature of the destination that has captured the hearts of visitors. We look forward to managing these distinctive hotels and delivering exceptional hospitality and value to guests."

Havana Cabana Key West leans into its namesake by blending the vibrant art and culture of Cuba with chic, tropical design elements throughout its 106 guest rooms. The hotel is steeped in charm and character, featuring classic cars out front, mojitos and music poolside, and custom murals throughout – making each stay a welcome escape from reality. Guests can discover authentic Cuban fare at the hotel's Floridita Food Truck, an ideal venue at which to enjoy a casual meal and drinks. Poolside experiences are complemented by the Mojitos Pool Bar, featuring a daily happy hour. The hotel boasts the largest pool in Key West, complete with cabanas, hammocks, lounge chairs, and poolside games perfect for the whole family.

Tranquility Bay Beachfront Hotel and Resort is a waterfront property featuring a blend of luxury accommodations, with 87 private beach houses and 16 guestrooms. The resort is ideal for both families as well as couples seeking an authentic Florida Keys experience, away from the crowds. Nestled in the heart of Marathon, Florida and surrounded by the Gulf of Mexico, the resort offers guests a palm-lined paradise at which to relax and reconnect. Tranquility Bay features a 2.5-acre private beach and three pools, including a lagoon-style pool as well as an adults-only pool. Guests can indulge in award-winning dining at Butterfly Café, or enjoy lunch, cocktails and smoothies at the beachside Tiki Bar. Activity offerings include a putting green by Nicklaus Design; a fitness center; and onsite watersports, including diving, snorkeling and sailing. Private, in-room spa treatments can also be booked upon request.

EOS Hospitality owns and operates Isla Bella Beach Resort in Marathon, FL and manages Oceans Edge Resort & Marina in Key West, FL.
