Weert, 20.02.2025, 12:27 Time

USPA NEWS - Last week Bospopannouncing 11 new names for the 43rd edition of Bospop! On July 11, 12, and 13, we will welcome none other than Marcus King, Blackberry Smoke, Ilse DeLange, Dirty Honey, ABBA Gold, The Vices, Grace Bowers & The Hodge Podge, October Drift, L.A. Edwards, Blowbeat, and Mojo Hand & Luca in Weert! With previously announced acts such as Simple Minds, Snow Patrol, The Black Keys, Melissa Etheridge, and Joe Bonamassa, this promises to be an unforgettable festival weekend. Don't miss it!

Marcus King has been developing his raw and versatile sound since a young age. His unmatched guitar riffs and life-inspired songs take audiences on a musical road trip. His latest album, Mood Swings, was produced by none other than Rick Rubin. With songs like The Well and Blood On The Tracks, he captivates listeners worldwide.
Blackberry Smoke is a Southern rock band that embodies the rich musical tradition of Georgia. Blending Southern rock, bluesy classic rock, and vintage country, their latest album, Be Right Here, continues their signature storytelling style. Known for their relentless touring, they have played at festivals such as Glastonbury and Bonnaroo, creating a global home for their fans.

Ilse DeLange hardly needs an introduction. After releasing her debut album World of Hurt, she quickly became one of the biggest and most beloved artists in the Netherlands—and far beyond. Currently, she is performing at numerous pop venues at home and abroad with a set full of hits like Miracle, So Incredible, and Changes.
